

CALL FOR REGISTRATION

in a two-day ecumenical and dialogue-based youth workshop

Event title:

Youth in Action: Ecumenical Dialogue

Date:

August 22–23, 2025 (Friday–Saturday)

Location:

Kyiv Region (details will be shared with selected participants)

Organizers:

Dialogue in Action (Kyiv, Ukraine) in partnership with PRO ORIENTE (Vienna, Austria)

What is this workshop about?

This two-day workshop is designed to facilitate dialogue on themes of mutual understanding, resilience, and cooperation among representatives of different Christian traditions. It creates space to explore personal identity, share faith experiences, and develop practical skills in active listening, dialogue, and mutual support.

Through practical exercises, interactive sessions, and discussions, participants will build skills for effective engagement and learn approaches that foster better understanding during misunderstandings and conflicts.

This workshop aims to:

- Promote ecumenical dialogue and mutual respect among young people from various Christian traditions.
- Explore themes of identity, resilience, empathy, and inclusion—topics that are particularly relevant for youth facing today’s challenges in Ukraine.
- Practice dialogue skills, active listening, and peacebuilding tools.
- Explore how young people can make an impact in their communities—through peacebuilding, initiatives, and ministry.
- Develop a support network among young Christians from different traditions who are committed to contributing to positive social change.

🔑 Together, we will explore key topics such as:

- Dialogue
- Ecumenism
- Identity
- Inner and collective resilience
- Conflict: understanding, transformation, effective engagement
- Building a shared vision for the future

👤 Who can apply?

- Young people aged 18–26
- Representatives of various Christian traditions
- Active participants in church or community life
- Individuals open to ecumenical dialogue

Participants will be selected by the facilitation team based on the principles of non-formal education. In order to create a group that becomes a source of mutual learning, the selection process will take into account geographic, gender, age, and denominational diversity. Your motivation, experience, and connection to the topic will also be considered during the selection process.
